

GRIT- Girls Representing in Trades Instructor Application

Position title: Welding Instructor

Program description: YWCA Missoula's girl's leadership program GUTS! (Girls Using Their Strengths), has launched a new program called GRIT, or Girls Representing in Trades. GRIT aims to engage, educate and empower young women to explore trade and skill-based work as attainable and feasible careers— anything from construction, to auto mechanics, to welding. GRIT teaches skilled trades to help girls identify their strengths, build confidence, develop their leadership skills, and challenge the stereotypes that exist within the trade culture.

Position responsibilities:

- Teach welding skills to groups of 5-8 high school girls. About 20-30 hours total instruction and planning time.
- Work with a co-instructor and GRIT staff to create appropriate curriculum that can be implemented within 1-2-month time frame.
- Help students plan an individual project to keep AND a team project to be donated back to the Missoula community.
- Effectively demonstrate and teach the following concepts and skills:
 - Necessary safety training around welding tools and equipment
 - Understanding of the different types of welding and their specific uses
 - Basic skills needed to work and build things out of metal
- Make a commitment to teach for the entirety of the program.
- Participate in a GRIT training prior to the beginning of instruction.
- Be engaged and on time during all planning meetings and actual instruction dates.
- Create a supportive, respectful, open, comfortable, and fun learning environment.
- Excellent communication with co-instructor, students, and GRIT staff.

Other qualifications may include:

- Work experience in the welding field.
- Experience working with youth.
- Experience teaching or facilitating groups.
- Knowledge of and/or interest in general gender-based social issues or specific gender-based issues within the trade culture.

Pay: Volunteer position with stipend provided.

Duration:

- 20-30 hours during February 2018 and early March 2018

Welding schedule: These dates are flexible. If the applicant is a great fit for GRIT, we would be happy to reassess the schedule with your availability in mind.

- Monday January 8th: 5:30-7:00 GRIT training
- Saturday February 17th: 9:00am-4:00pm (7 hours)
- Weekday, week of February 19th: 4:00pm-7:00pm (3 hours)
